Building Your Attack From the Back

New Jersey Youth Soccer

Coach Lou Mignone

Building vs. Possession

How can we differentiate Building and Possession?

A Look at the 5 Ws

- What – is this action we want to improve?
- Where – upon the field is this happening?
- Who – are the players involved?
- When – is this happening?
- Why – is this happening?

Attacking Goals

1. Improve Building-Up in Our Half to Move the Ball Forward – Our Half
2. Improve Building-Up in Opponent's Half to Create Chances – Opponent's Half
3. Improve Scoring Goals – Near to Opponent's Goal

Improve Building-Up in Our Half to Move the Ball Forward

How will players accomplish this goal?

- Find openings
- Create openings

Attacking Roadmap Player Actions

- Shoot
- Pass or dribble forward
- Spread out
- Create passing options
- Support the attack
- Create a 2v1 or 1v1
- Change the point of the attack
- Change the pace / rhythm
- Switch positions

7v7 Build-Out Line LOTG Modification

- Promotes playing out from the back in a less pressured setting
- Opposing team must move behind the build-out line when the goalkeeper has the ball or a goal kick occurs
- The goalkeeper can pass, roll, or throw the ball to a teammate but cannot punt
- The opposing team can cross the build-out line once the ball is put into play
